The slogan 'Power of humanity' is used by the International Red Cross and Red Crescent movement to help promote a greater understanding of the organisation. Design a poster using this slogan to help get the movement's message across.

The International Red Cross and Red Crescent movement follow seven fundamental principles. Find out what each of these words / principles mean:- Humanity, Impartiality, Neutrality, Independence, Voluntary Service, Unity and Universality.

Henri Dunant is recognised as the founding father of the Red Cross organisation. Do research to find out the details of how the organisation began.

The rise in the number of natural disasters worldwide has meant an increase in disaster preparedness activities. The Movement helps communities become more aware of the risks they face, how to reduce their vulnerability and how to cope when disaster strikes. Your job is to make a radio announcement warning people of a potential flood, bushfire, volcanic eruption, tsunami or other natural disaster explaining what to do in the case of such an event.

In response to the disaster in Haiti in January this year, Red Cross and Red Crescent societies provided much needed relief and assistance to those affected. Write a caption for the photo and a short news report on the aid provided. In your report, use words like:- supplies, infrastructure, aid workers, 400 Red Cross and Red Crescent volunteers. Port-au-Prince, earthquake
